

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

LISA GUFFEY and CHRISTINE SMITH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ROSLYNN R. MAUSKOPF, Director,
Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts,

Defendant.

Case No. 18-cv-1271 (CRC)

ORDER

For the reasons stated in the D.C. Circuit’s Opinion filed on August 16, 2022, it is hereby ORDERED that [ECF No. 24] Defendant’s Motion for Summary Judgment is DENIED.

It is further

ORDERED that [ECF No. 26] Plaintiffs’ Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that Defendant Roslynn R. Mauskopf in her official capacity as Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts (the “AO”), and all persons acting under her supervision or in concert with her, shall be permanently enjoined from enforcing against Lisa Guffey or Christine Smith the AO Code of Conduct insofar as it restricts the following activities:

- a. expressing opinions publicly regarding a political party or partisan candidate for office;
- b. wearing or displaying partisan political badges, signs, or buttons;
- c. driving voters to polls on behalf of a political party or partisan candidate for office;
- d. contributing funds to a political party, political action committee, or partisan candidate for office;
- e. attending partisan fundraisers;

- f. being a member of a partisan political organization;
- g. attending events for a partisan candidate for office;
- h. organizing events for a partisan candidate for office; and
- i. attending party conventions, rallies, or meetings. It is further

ORDERED that this injunction shall be effective upon service on Defendant, and no bond shall be required.

This is a final appealable Order.

SO ORDERED.
